From the reports it is not possible for me to locate any of the witnesses on either the diagram or the photos. The diagram needs to be redrawn with the following in mind:

1. ✓ There are many visual obstructions for a person looking in from outside. These need to be located IN SCALE and in the correct locations using the photos from that night. There are chairs, stacks of boxes, cardboard displays, folding tables, moveable racks outside the doors, etc. There are also signs on the window that could have had an effect on the witness' perceptions.
2. ✓ The location of the doors in relationship to the counters is important. In the photos the doors are opened OUT. In the diagram they open IN. Please find out which way they were.
3. ✓ There is a notation of 33.10' on the diagram, but I cannot figure out what is being measured from what.
4. ✓ Every photo that could have helped me locate the counter is obscured with policemen standing in the way. From the photos it appears that one cannot see the counter from the front. One would be hard-pressed to see someone on the ground in front of or behind it.
5. ✓ None of the interviews deals with these problems of what can be seen from where. Basically, the simplest solution would be a video walk-through with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] separately.
6. ✓ None of the photos show Linda Hageman's view either of the activity inside the store or of the location of the man she shot. Stills would be useful. Video would be more so.

The large diagram is good as far as it goes...but needs to include the walkway along the north side, the 31 Flavors window from which the witness watched and the area where the 4 guys parked their car.

~~I don't have a property report for the two shirts taken from the hospital. (Also, Lorenzen's report never mentions the items that Harwood's report says come from him: Tazer, phone, blue cap and black and white cap. Which of the juveniles was wearing which cap? I thought you guys took the Tazer later on?)~~ REQUESTED 2/21

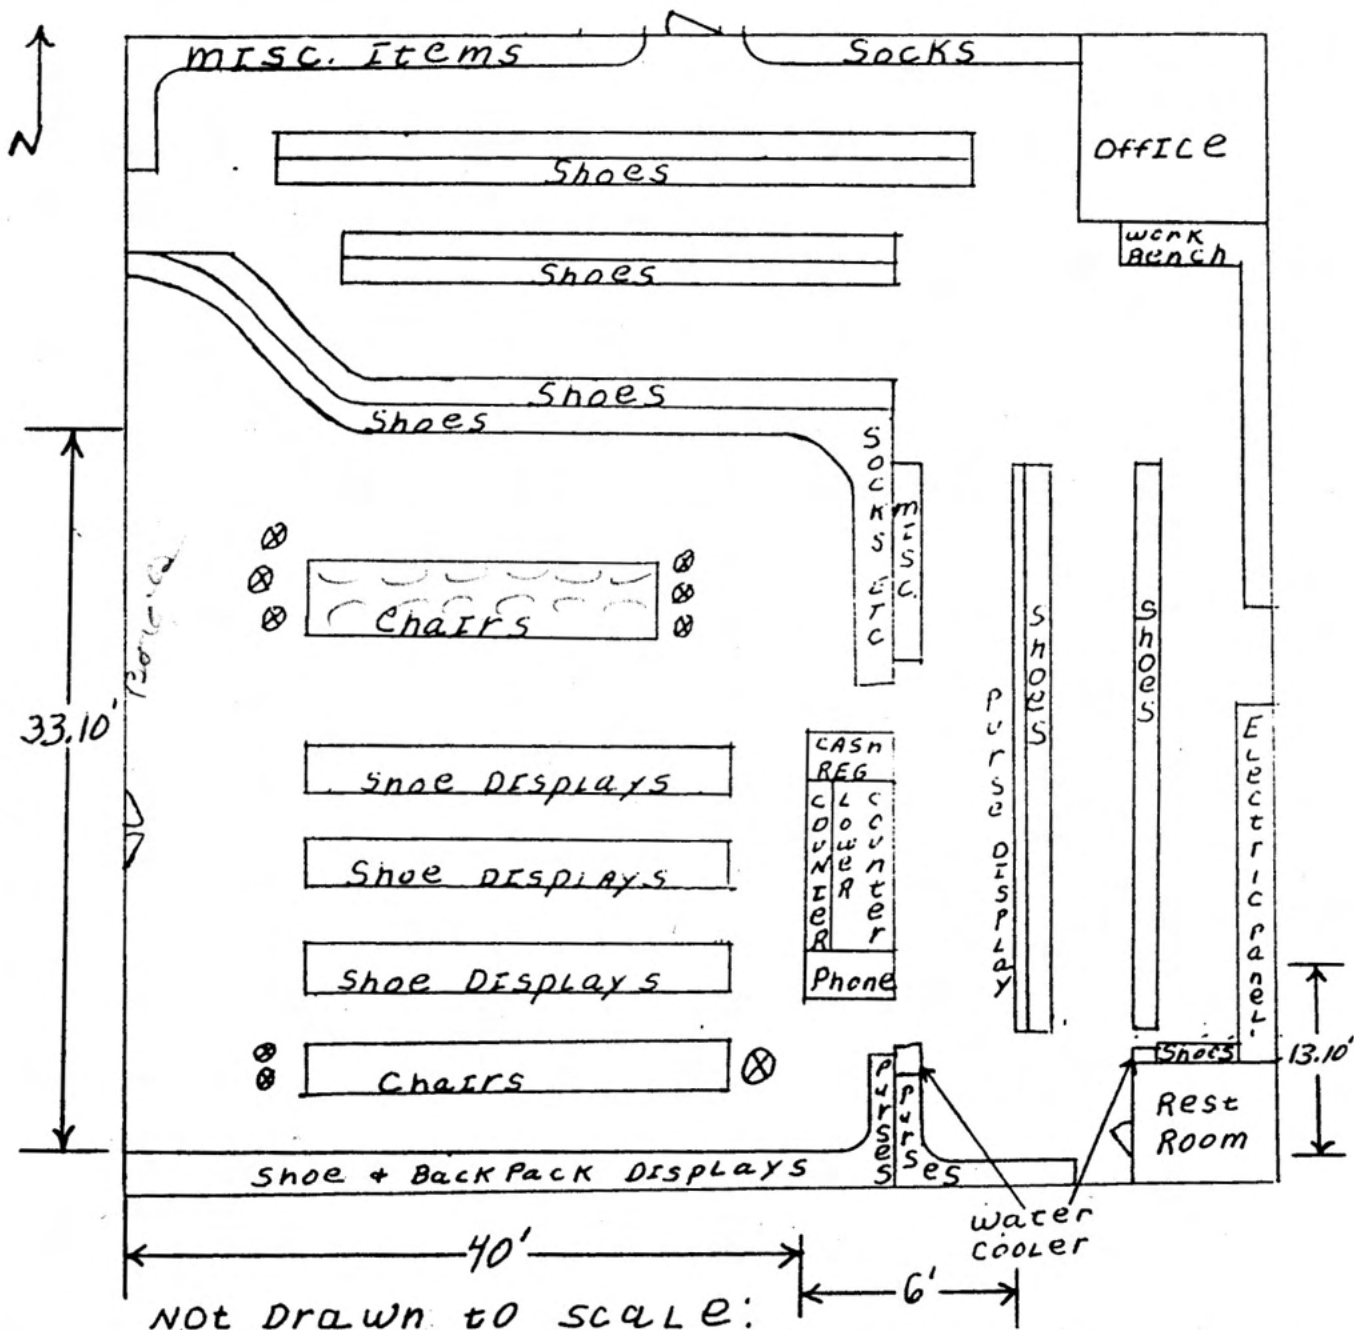

Incidentally, the biggest of the four people was the 15-yr-old at 6' 200 lbs. He outweighs Moreno by about 20 pounds...and both were wearing black sweatshirts. Maybe [REDACTED] WAS the one who got the Tazer after all!

Love triangle sparked shooting

Deputy fired gun after fight, not robbery

By Jim McLain / S-FP staff writer

It was a love triangle, not an armed robbery, that began the feud which ended with a sheriff's deputy critically wounding a young unarmed Oxnard man outside a Camarillo shoe store, investigators said Thursday.

Daniel Moreno, 24, remained in critical condition today in the intensive-care unit at County Medical Center, Ventura, with a shotgun pellet wound in his head.

The deputy who shot him, Linda Hagemann, 30, Oxnard, was the focal point today of an internal-affairs investigation that may take weeks to complete.

Hagemann was put on paid leave and ordered to undergo counseling — a routine procedure in such cases — while investigators piece together precisely what happened at about 5 p.m. Wednesday outside the Kinney Shoe's store, 706 Arneill Road.

Sheriff's dispatchers told Hagemann, a deputy for eight years, that the store was being robbed by four men who appeared to have weapons, said Lt. Loe Harwell, who is in charge of the Sheriff Department's Major Crimes Unit.

The four were bent on a fight, however, not a holdup, when they entered the store, Harwell said.

Moreno was angry because his former wife had become the girlfriend of Victor Miranotes, 25, a clerk at the store, Harwell said. Moreno and the others, Ruben Martinez, 18, Oxnard, and two Oxnard boys aged 15 and dated 911 for help but tried to make it sound like he was making an ordinary business call.

The communication was cryptic, disjointed and very brief, Harwell said.

"What he got across was that there was a disturbance, but he couldn't be real clear as to what type of disturbance it was," Harwell said. "When he was asked about weapons, he said 'Yes, possibly.'"

The conversation ended abruptly. The dispatcher heard only the sounds of a wild fight before the telephone connection was broken. She dispatched Hagemann to the store, telling her that a robbery by four men was in progress and that they possibly had weapons, Harwell said.

The fight inside the store before Hagemann arrived was wild, witnesses told deputies. One passer-by said he happened to look through the display window just as a man was being hurled across the store.

Before leaving the store, the four took a check-writing machine, a telephone and a pair of shoes, Harwell said. They apparently were not armed, however, because no weapons were found, he said.

When Hagemann arrived, still believing she was responding to an armed robbery, the four men were coming out of the store.

She ordered them to stop, Harwell said, and they apparently hesitated briefly before breaking into a run. That was when Hagemann fired her shotgun once, wounding Moreno severely in the head with one of the pellets.

As Moreno fell to the ground, Martinez stomped and Sheriff's deputy shot and critically wounded an Oxnard man as he and three others were trying to flee the scene of a shoe-store robbery Wednesday in Camarillo.

Moreno, 24, was listed in critical condition in the intensive-care unit at County Medical Center, Ventura, this morning. Sheriff's deputies said he had been shot once in the head, but other reports indicated he also had a stomach injury.

The incident occurred just after 5 p.m. at Kinney Shoes, 706 Arneil Road.

Deputies said a 911 emergency dispatcher got a call from a man inside the store. In a hushed voice he tersely told her that the store was being robbed by four men and that he believed they had weapons, deputies said.

The man had barely gotten that information out when the dispatcher heard sounds of a violent struggle and the telephone connection was broken, deputies said.

Sheriff's deputies arrived at the store less than a minute later and saw four young men running from the building.

Man shot in robbery

They yelled at them to stop, and one of the deputies fired a single round from a shotgun, wounding Moreno in the head, deputies said. Deputies would not release the name of the officer who fired the shot, but witnesses said it was a female deputy.

Moreno and one of the other robbery suspects were arrested in one of the stores. Two other suspects were arrested a short distance away.

Besides Moreno, those arrested were [redacted] Martinez, 18, and two boys, ages 17 and 16. All are Oxnard residents.

[redacted] was booked into County Jail in Ventura on suspicion of armed robbery, and the two youths were placed in juvenile hall.

Deputies said an unidentified employee of the store was injured during the robbery attempt. He was taken to Pleasant Valley Hospital, Camarillo, but his injuries were not believed to be serious.

The Sheriff's Department's major-crimes unit was still investigating the case this morning.

Valentine's Day shooting charges against 2 dropped

By SHARON CHING
Camarillo Daily News staff

Charges against two young men have been dropped after a Valentine's Day incident at a Camarillo shoe store, officials said. However, a juvenile, who was involved, may be prosecuted for shoplifting.

The Ventura County District Attorney's office said there was not enough evidence against two Oxnard males after they were arrested last Wednesday in the assault of an employee of Kinney's Shoes, 706 Arneill Road.

A fourth man involved in the assault, Daniel Moreno, remains in critical condition after he was shot by a deputy at the store. His charges are pending.

"We want to see if he will survive and if he will make a statement," said Carol Nelson, deputy district attorney. "So we are not charging him with anything at this time."

Moreno, 24, of Oxnard, remained in intensive care at Ventura County Medical Center after he and his friends entered the shoe store last week to reportedly harass [redacted] 26, an employee of Kinney's Shoes.

As the group exited the store and tried to flee the scene, a deputy, responding to a robbery in progress, fired a shotgun wounding Moreno in the head.

Witnesses and police said the group had refused to obey the deputy's order to halt.

There was not enough evidence to prosecute two of the young men, but a 15-year-old juvenile has been charged with shoplifting, Nelson said.

"There wasn't enough evidence against one and no one could identify the other as being there," she said.

While [redacted] was being assaulted, the 15-year-old juvenile stole a pair of women's shoes and a telephone, Nelson said.

Authorities said Moreno wanted to harass [redacted] because he is dating Moreno's ex-wife.

Because of Moreno's critical state, Nelson said the district attorney's office is in no hurry to file charges against Moreno.

However, someone will have to answer to the battery charges. Nelson said she was not sure if she would seek misdemeanor or felony battery.

Narrative:

At Approximately 5:00 PM Sheriff's Dispatch received a call on their 911 lines from the Kinney Shoe store on Arneil Rd. in Camarillo. The caller spoke as though he was talking to a customer rather than the 911 desk. The Sheriff's calltaker asked if there was a problem at the store and was told yes. The caller was obviously nervous and unable to describe what was occurring directly. When asked if weapons were involved he told the calltaker that they possibly were. Given that information Sheriff's units were dispatched to a possible robbery in progress with weapons involved. The call ended with the receiver being dropped and sounds of a violent struggle being overheard by 911. This information was relayed to responding units. The first officer on scene was Sr. Dep. Linda Hagemann, an eight year veteran with the Sheriff's office. Hagemann arrived within seconds of the call being dispatched and took a position to cover the front of the store. Shortly after her arrival the suspects emerged from the front door. Hagemann ordered the suspects to stop. They ignored the deputy's command and ran towards the parking lot. One shot was fired by deputy Hagemann from her shotgun. Suspect Moreno was struck by one pellet in the head. The wounded suspect and one other were apprehended at the store. The two remaining suspects were apprehended by responding units a short distance away and the property taken from the store was recovered. Moreno was transported to Pleasant Valley Hospital and later moved to the Ventura County Medical Center in Ventura. He is listed in critical condition. The Juvenile suspects have been lodged in Ventura County Juvenile Hall. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was booked into County Jail on a charge of 211 PC. An employee of the store was injured in the struggle in the store and was transported to Pleasant Valley Hospital for treatment. Investigation has revealed that there was a domestic problem between Moreno and a store employee. The four men apparently went to the store with the intention of physically confronting the store employee.

INTRODUCTION

On February 14, 1990, at approximately 4:57 p.m., Ventura County Sheriff's Senior Deputy Linda Hagemann responded to a "possible 211" (robbery) call at the Kinney Shoe store in a shopping center at 706 Arneill Road, Camarillo. During the incident, Daniel Moreno, age 24 of Oxnard, was hit in the back of the head with one pellet from a round fired from Deputy Hagemann's department-issued shotgun. Mr. Moreno was seriously injured and may not survive.

The Ventura County Sheriff's Department Major Crimes Unit conducted a very detailed investigation. This consists of over 300 pages of reports, diagrams, scene photographs, aerial photographs, ballistic analysis, toxicology, interviews with scores of witnesses and videotaped reenactments.

The District Attorney's review team includes Senior Deputy District Attorney Carol Nelson, Investigator Robert Velasquez, and Senior Investigator Richard Haas. As part of this review, district attorney personnel were available at the scene soon after the shooting. The team reviewed all reports, photographs, diagrams, taped interviews, videotapes, and viewed the scene at various times during the investigation. In addition, District Attorney team members interviewed several civilian and police witnesses in cooperation with the Sheriff Department's Major Crimes Unit. The District Attorney's Office also conducted an exhaustive legal analysis applying the facts of the shooting to the law.

This investigation and analysis has led to the conclusion that the shooting of Daniel Moreno by Senior Deputy Hagemann was not a criminal act. The scope of this report is limited to that issue; it does not address the Sheriff's Department shooting policy or Deputy Hagemann's compliance or noncompliance with that policy.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

On February 14, 1990, at 4:53 p.m., the Sheriff's Emergency Operations Center received a 911 call from the Kinney Shoe store at 706 Arneill in Camarillo. The caller seemed at first to have dialed a wrong number. He talked about collecting some money. After some questioning by the operator, it became evident that someone was with the caller, preventing him from explaining his problem. The operator, through a set of leading questions, could determine only that there was a problem at the store and that weapons were possibly involved.

Not knowing what the problem was, the operator asked the dispatcher to "get somebody to 706 Arneill Road. Possible 211 in progress. Kinney Shoe's . . . possible weapons involved." This was dispatched at 4:56 p.m. as "possible 211 in progress . . . PO' . . . 1033 in effect. Weapons involved." (1033 is the radio code for "emergency traffic only." 211 is the Penal Code section for robbery.)

Senior Deputy Hagemann was one of several units that responded to the call. She happened to be northbound on Arneill, having just cleared the intersection at Ponderosa, and was virtually in front of the 76 station just south of the Kinney store.

Kinney's is one of two businesses in a freestanding building facing Arneill at the southwest corner of a multiacre shopping center which includes a Longs Drug, a K Mart and a number of smaller retail businesses facing onto a large parking lot. There is a Union 76 gas station at the corner of Arneill and Ponderosa that can be entered from either street. Toward the middle of the shopping center parking lot is another freestanding building, housing a Bank of A. Levy branch with a drive-up window on the south wall (facing Kinney's). The Bank of A. Levy is approximately 120 yards north of the Kinney store.

Deputy Hagemann stopped for a second, then pulled her marked car into the driveway and parked between the Union 76 and the shoe store building. She got out of her car with her shotgun and looked around the corner of the building. According to witnesses and to Deputy Hagemann, she began to move parallel to the sidewalk in front of the store, in an effort to look inside Kinney's to determine what was going on. At 4:57:10, she was advised by dispatch that there was a fight going on inside.

At this point a man, later identified as a [REDACTED], the store manager, walked out of Kinney's front door and started southward on the walkway. Seeing Deputy Hagemann, he in effect told her: "They are beating my employee, do something" (these words are remembered slightly differently by various witnesses).

Deputy Hagemann proceeded forward in an attempt to verify what was happening. She saw five young males just inside the door. She could hear the noise of a stun weapon, but could not see one.

Suddenly, four of the men came out of the door and headed northbound toward the corner of the building. Deputy Hagemann, believing from the dispatch that they were armed, looked for weapons. She yelled for them to "freeze." They kept going and Deputy Hagemann raised her shotgun and racked a round into the chamber. Deputy Hagemann could see the hands of the first three individuals as they came out of the door and walked toward the corner. She could not see the hands of the fourth individual who was larger and obviously older than the others. By process of elimination, she determined that this was most likely the one who was armed.

As the man, Daniel Moreno, got to the corner, he made a movement described by Deputy Hagemann at different times as a "dip of his shoulder" and a "hesitation." Deputy Hagemann interpreted this as the beginning of a turn toward her. At this point, she fired.

Most of the pellets from the shotgun traveled over 120 yards, hitting the bulletproof drive-up window of the Bank of A. Levy and the wall and roof surrounding the window. One pellet hit Daniel Moreno in the right rear of his head, traveled through his brain, and lodged under his skull above his left eyebrow.

At 4:57:28, dispatch received a garbled and hysterical-sounding message from Deputy Hagemann and additional units hurried to the scene.

Deputy Hagemann ran to the corner, where she saw 18-year-old [REDACTED] [REDACTED] hiding behind a car. She ordered [REDACTED] out and held him at shotgun-point until Deputy Handy arrived seconds later. Deputy Hagemann pointed out the direction in which the first two suspects had run. As Handy began to move in that direction, Deputy Hagemann called him back, then walked away, southbound, toward her car.

Deputy Waite heard the shotgun blast as he was responding to the 211 call, entering the southeast driveway into the center. Waite veered back onto Ponderosa and entered, instead, through the 76 station. Deputy Dickman also arrived. At 4:59:50, Sergeant Noel Brown was on the scene and had Deputy Hagemann taken back to Camarillo station. Moreno was not searched. He was taken away by ambulance. No weapon was found on Moreno or [REDACTED], nor was one found in the area around the suspects. A set of car keys was found by the body and placed on the gurney with Moreno.

Deputies arrested the two other suspects, both juveniles, at a bank several blocks away.

Investigation revealed that the person who placed the 911 call, [REDACTED] lives with Moreno's ex-wife and Moreno's

6-year-old daughter, [REDACTED]. There have been several prior incidents in which Moreno has threatened [REDACTED], including at least one in which he indicated that he had a gun. Moreno had harassed his ex-wife on the afternoon of the 14th, at her work, breaking a glass partition by her desk. [REDACTED] was aware of this incident.

When Moreno and three similarly-dressed friends showed up at Kinney's, [REDACTED] was on the phone regarding some layaways. Quickly concluding that this was not a social visit, he dialed 911, but felt he did not dare let Moreno know who was on the line. This situation accounts for the cryptic nature of the ensuing telephone conversation.

While [REDACTED] was on the phone, Moreno lost his temper and began hitting [REDACTED], getting him on the floor behind the sales counter where he kicked him savagely. [REDACTED] either joined in or, as he says, tried to pull Moreno off [REDACTED]. The manager, [REDACTED], 55, seeing [REDACTED] being beaten, decided that he was "too old" to deal with this and left, walking out the front of the store where he encountered Deputy Hagemann in front of the Footlocker.

The third employee, [REDACTED], 21, had noticed the quartet when they came into the store and had gone to his car to get his stun gun. After the attack on [REDACTED] and as the men began to leave the store, [REDACTED] was involved in an altercation with one of them (he believes Moreno) in which he used the electric weapon on the man. Thus, the scene inside Kinney's just prior to the shooting was a virtual melee.

PHYSICAL EVIDENCE

When investigators arrived on the scene, Deputy Hagemann's shotgun was in her unlocked patrol unit. It was seized and subsequently tested. There was a round in the chamber and the safety mechanism was disengaged. That model of shotgun, once "racked" or cocked, has a trigger-pull pressure of 3.75 pounds, approximately the same as that of a semiautomatic pistol.

The particular gun was tested at 20 yards, the approximate distance from Deputy Hagemann to Mr. Moreno. It was found to shoot slightly high. The pellet spread at that distance was 17 inches.

At the scene, one expended shotgun cartridge was found on the asphalt several feet to the right of where Deputy Hagemann and witnesses place her when the gun went off. In addition, pieces of felt wadding were found several feet in front of the cartridge.

No shotgun pellets were found in the area of Kinney's, in the parking lot, nor in any cars parked to the north of Kinney's between the shoe store and the bank. Five pellet scars were seen on the south wall of the Bank of A. Levy. One pellet cracked the bullet-resistant glass in the drive-up window (which was in operation at the time of the shooting). Two pellets were recovered.

Mr. Moreno's clothing was seized. He had been wearing blue Levis, a black, long-sleeved pullover sweat shirt, gray shoes, and a Raiders hat. There are no pockets in the sweat shirt. A set of General Motor keys, later matched to a 1983 Pontiac Grand Prix parked to the northeast of the Kinney Shoe store, accompanied him to the hospital.

WITNESS STATEMENTS

There were numerous witnesses to the shooting. Among them are: [REDACTED], the victim of the assault by Moreno, who stated that he was on the phone trying to settle some layaways when Moreno and the others entered. He contacted 911 while pretending to be talking to a customer. He answered "possibly" to the operator's question regarding weapons, because he believed Moreno had carried a gun in his pocket during an earlier confrontation at the Club Soda, and Moreno had threatened to "blow" [REDACTED] "away."

After the four men entered the store, one of the group went into the back to use the rest room. When he came out, [REDACTED] saw a bulge in the boy's jacket, and suspected he had stolen stock. Before [REDACTED] could do anything about this, Moreno attacked him.

██████████ said that he is manager of the store. He and ██████████ were together at the sales counter when he saw the four men come in and act as though they knew ██████████, who seemed to be ignoring them. One of the group went into the back area of the store to use the rest room. After he came back, another asked to use the rest room and ██████████ told him to wait. After this, the men "jumped" ██████████. ██████████ did not want to get involved and walked to the front door, intending to go next door to the Footlocker to call the police. One of the men, who had been near the door, spoke to ██████████ as he exited. ██████████ was unable to describe any of the men other than that they were "Mexicans."

Once out the door, ██████████ saw Deputy Hagemann and told her, "Get in there . . . they're beating the shit out of him." He then turned and saw the men coming out the door and pointed them out to Deputy Hagemann.

██████████ said he was with Moreno and the two juveniles for some time that afternoon. After dropping a girlfriend of Moreno at her house, getting gas, and going by the 7-Eleven for sodas, they went to Kinney's. Moreno told them he had to collect some money from his ex-wife's boyfriend, ██████████.

When they went inside, ██████████ was on the phone. "Danny" told the manager they were there to talk to their "friend ██████████." Danny asked to use the rest room. When he passed behind the counter,

"for no reason" Danny jumped [REDACTED]. He beat him, yelling, "That's for my daughter."

According to [REDACTED], Moreno was "going madman" on [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] said he and one of the juveniles grabbed Moreno to pull him off of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] then noticed a store employee with a green shirt ([REDACTED]) fighting with the other juvenile.

As they ran out, they heard [REDACTED] yelling obscenities. [REDACTED] could hear the electric zapping sound he knew to be a "shocker." They began walking fast towards Moreno's car parked in the lot around the corner behind and to the north of the store. [REDACTED] had just cleared the corner when he heard the "boom" of a shotgun. He looked back and saw Daniel on the ground and a "lady cop" with a shotgun pointed at him. She told him to stop and he complied.

[REDACTED] said he was unaware of the lady cop until he heard the shotgun blast. All he heard was [REDACTED] yelling obscenities at them.

[REDACTED] is an employee of Baskin-Robbins, the store just to the east of (behind) Kinney's. She was standing at the lot in front of Baskin-Robbins and saw a Grand Prix parked near her in a marked space. Four Hispanic males got out and walked toward the Kinney store. A few minutes later, she heard the shotgun blast and looked up to see two juveniles run eastbound past the Baskin-Robbins and Happy Steak toward the southeast exit of the center.

She saw one man down and another lying nearby with a female sheriff's deputy standing over him with a shotgun.

██████████ is an unemployed security guard who was in the 76 station filling his car with gas when he saw Deputy Hagemann's unit drive into the lot. After she got out with her shotgun, he watched her from approximately 20 feet behind her.

██████████ said he saw a juvenile come out of the store, then go back inside. About 30 seconds later, four Hispanic men came out with one of the employees (Anglo) chasing them with a stun gun. He could hear the zapping sound.

██████████ heard Deputy Hagemann yell "halt" and "freeze." He thought the men saw Hagemann since they were in front of the employee with the stun gun (██████████). The men ignored Deputy Hagemann and continued northward. Two had turned right at the corner when Deputy Hagemann fired. She immediately racked another round. He could recall no movement by any of the men that indicated a turn or any threatening gesture.

██████████ is a Sheriff Service Technician at the East Valley jail. He was driving to work and was at the limit line southbound on Arneill at Ponderosa when he saw Deputy Hagemann's vehicle in the northbound lane suddenly stop then turn into the driveway between the Footlocker and the 76 station.

While [REDACTED] waited for the light to change, he saw Deputy Hagemann park the car and walk to the front of the store. He saw a teenager walking southbound by the Footlocker. Then he saw an older man with a suit come out and speak to Hagemann.

[REDACTED] looked into Kinney's and saw what looked like several guys bent over beating someone on the floor. Suddenly, four guys dressed like "gang bangers" came out of Kinney's. [REDACTED] heard Deputy Hagemann yell "freeze." The men hesitated, then seemed to look back toward her. They then began moving northbound toward the corner. He heard the shot and saw someone drop. As the light turned green, [REDACTED] saw backup officers arrive.

STATEMENT OF DEPUTY HAGEMANN

Deputy Hagemann, on the advice of counsel, refused to waive Miranda to be interviewed by Major Crimes detectives for this investigation. It became necessary for investigators to piece together statements she made to friends and co-workers soon after the shooting, to determine what her state of mind, perceptions and intent were during the incident.

At Camarillo Police Station within a short time after the shooting, Deputy Hagemann told a friend, Sergeant Jim Wilburn, that she had begun an overtime shift when she received the 211 call. She understood the call to be a possible robbery with armed suspects. She was already at the scene. She parked her marked car and took the shotgun to a point she hoped would provide both visibility and cover. A man came out of the store and told her something to the effect, "They were beating hell out of another employee."

She then saw four men come out the front of the store and head northward away from her. Deputy Hagemann said she called for them to freeze, but they did not respond and kept moving away. By this time, she was standing in front of the two stores. She saw the hands of the first three men and concluded that they were not armed. The fourth, larger and older-looking, had his hands in such a way that she could not see them. She concluded that he must be the one who was armed. She racked a round into the shotgun, and again yelled "freeze."

Suddenly this last individual made a movement with his upper body that Deputy Hagemann described as a "dipping of one shoulder." Deputy Hagemann believed that the man was turning toward her, possibly to shoot. At this point, the shotgun fired.

Deputy Hagemann told her friend that she was startled when the gun went off. She did not know whether she fired as a conditioned reflex or whether it was a nervous reaction. She was unaware of a conscious effort on her part to fire.

Under orders from her department and after consultation with her attorney, William Hadden, Hagemann prepared a report on February 16, 1990, in which she merely stated the conclusion that she fired the shot because she was "in fear for my safety and the safety of others in the immediate area." This statement, to the extent it suggests a conscious decision on Hagemann's part to fire her weapon, is not consistent with her statements to Sergeant Wilburn indicating she was not sure why she shot.

Samples of Deputy Hagemann's blood and urine were taken soon after the shooting, and were tested by both Ventura County Sheriff's criminalistics laboratory and by independent private laboratories. Results were negative for alcohol, drugs and steroids.

FACTUAL CONCLUSION

When Deputy Hagemann arrived at 706 Arneill, she reasonably believed that a robbery was in progress and that weapons were involved. She assumed that this possibly meant a handgun. By chance, she was already at the scene when she received the call and she hid her car beside the building.

Being unable to determine what was actually happening, she left her position of cover and began to advance toward the doorway, walking on the asphalt in front of the adjoining store, the Footlocker. Before she reached the point where the two stores come together, she saw [REDACTED] [REDACTED] walking apparently calmly toward her. [REDACTED] told her that she had to go in there and that an employee was being beaten. At this point, Deputy Hagemann was the only law enforcement officer on the scene. She did not know exactly where her backup was.

Suddenly, four men came out the front door, followed by a fifth. She heard yelling and the zapping of a stun weapon. She yelled "freeze" but the men did not respond. She racked a round into the shotgun. In fact, in all likelihood, because of the noise and confusion, the men did not hear Deputy Hagemann yell. The four proceeded northbound toward the corner of the building.

Deputy Hagemann, with the shotgun raised, yelled again to "halt" or "freeze." She could see the empty hands of the first two (the juveniles) as they rounded the corner. She saw the hands of the third man (██████████) as he reached the corner, and thus, by process of elimination, concluded that the person most likely to be armed was the fourth and largest man, Daniel Moreno. As Moreno reached the corner, he made a movement that was interpreted by Deputy Hagemann as the beginning of a turn toward her. She still could not see his hands.

In fact, the motion that Daniel Moreno made was probably that of reaching inside his jeans pocket for his car keys since his car was around the corner and approximately 49 yards away. Apparently reacting to this movement, and without reflection, Deputy Hagemann fired.

LEGAL PRINCIPLES

Justification for the use of deadly force by a peace officer is discussed in many cases and derives from the common-law rule which was codified in California in 1872. This, in turn, derived from the common-law powers of arrest.

Penal Code section 836: A peace officer may make an arrest without a warrant . . . (3) whenever he has reasonable cause to believe that the person to be arrested has committed a felony, whether or not a felony has in fact been committed (enacted 1872, amended 1957).

Penal Code section 835a: Any peace officer who has reasonable cause to believe that the person to be arrested has committed a public offense, may use reasonable force to effect the arrest, to prevent escape or to overcome resistance.

A peace officer who makes or attempts to make an arrest, need not retreat or desist from his efforts by reason of the resistance or threatened resistance of the person being arrested, nor shall such officer be deemed an aggressor . . . by the use of reasonable force to effect the arrest or to prevent escape . . . (Added statutes 1957.)

Penal Code section 196(3): Homicide is justifiable when committed by public officers . . . when necessarily committed in arresting persons charged with felony and who are fleeing from justice or resisting such arrest. (Enacted 1872.)

At common-law, felonies were those crimes punishable by death. An officer or private citizen was deemed justified in using deadly force, if necessary, to capture a fleeing felon. This rule was established to deter criminals from trying to escape. People v. Martin (1985) 168 Cal.App.3d 1111, citing State v. Rutherford (1821) 8 N.C. 457; Perkins Criminal Law (1957) pp. 873-874.

When California enacted the Penal Code in 1872, it was this common-law rule that was codified in section 197 and 196(3). Justification for the Use of Force in the Criminal Law (1961) 13 Stan.L.Rev. 566, 580-581. Neither statute has been significantly amended since that time, thus each is interpreted in light of the common-law rule. Citing Martin, supra, at 1116; People v. Gilmore (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 612, at 616.

However, since 1872, both the definition of and penalty for felonies has changed drastically. Courts over the past three decades have not always applied the statutes in the historical manner, arguing that the reasoning behind the common-law standard is no longer valid.

Elimination of most felonies from the category of capital crimes, coupled with the inclusion in the felony list of many misdeeds never punishable by death, has caused some to doubt the propriety of continuing the ancient rule, which permitted any fleeing felon to be killed if he could not otherwise be overtaken.

Perkins Criminal Law, (2d ed. 1969), p. 983.

One of the first such decisions in California was People v. Jones (1961) 191 Cal.App.2d 478, in which it was decided that the common-law rule regarding justified homicide was meant to apply only to certain common-law felonies, described in that case as "forcible and atrocious crimes."

It is true that Penal Code section 197(1) does provide that homicide is justifiable when resisting an attempt to commit a felony. But the section does no more than codify the common-law and should be read in light of it. Taken at face value and without qualification, it represents an oversimplification of the law today.

Jones, at 481.

In People v. Piorkowsky (1974) 41 Cal.App.3d 324, the court further limited justification to those felonies in which death or great bodily harm are threatened. Piorkowsky was a private citizen who witnessed the burglary of a dry cleaning establishment. He took a holstered pistol and pursued the three young burglars. Two got away, but Piorkowsky caught the third and in the struggle, the gun was fired, killing the youth. The California Appellate Court found that deadly force was not justified, even though burglary was a common-law felony.

The character of the crime and the manner of its perpetration, during daylight hours in a business establishment open to the public and with no confrontation aided by force, did not warrant the use of deadly force by a private citizen to effect the arrest of the fleeing youths who had committed the crime . . .

Id. at 325.

The court indicated that the decision was based at least in part on the fact that daytime burglary was not a felony punishable by death at common-law. The significance placed on this distinction is borne out by the decision in People v. Walker (1973) at 32 Cal.App.3d 897, in which the killing of a nighttime residential burglar by a private citizen was deemed justifiable.

In People v. Ceballos (1974) 12 Cal.3d 470, the California Supreme Court interpreted justification to apply to cases where there is an atrocious crime committed by force. This was a well-publicized case in which a homeowner who had been repeatedly burglarized installed a trap gun. During an apparent attempt by two boys to commit a burglary, one boy was shot.

The homeowner was tried and convicted of assault with a deadly weapon, despite his contention that deadly force would have been justified had he been present, thus he was entitled to do indirectly what he could have done directly. The Supreme Court affirmed Ceballos' conviction analyzing the law of justification for the use of deadly force as it is contained in Penal Code section 197, even though the prosecution was pursuant to Penal Code section 245.

The punishment provided by a statute is not necessarily an adequate test as to whether life may be taken for in some situations it is too artificial and unrealistic. We must look further into the character of the crime and the manner of its perpetration. [Citing Storey v. State 71 Ala. 329.] When these do not reasonably create a fear of great bodily harm, as they could not if the defendant apprehended only a misdemeanor assault, there is no cause for the exaction of a human life. [Cites deleted.]

. . . Examples of forcible and atrocious crimes are murder, mayhem, rape and robbery (cites deleted). In such crimes, "from their atrocity and violence human life . . . either is or is presumed to be, in peril." (Citing U.S. v. Gilliam 25 F.CAS 1319, and cases from other jurisdictions).

The court went on to state that, while burglary was a common-law atrocious crime, not all burglaries were factually so.

The next key case was Kortum v. Alkire (1977) 69 Cal.App.3d 325, which summarized the analyses of past courts. In Kortum, the court stated that the California courts have interpreted the word felony, as used in Penal Code section 196, 197, 835(a) and 837, to refer only to violent felonies and the use of deadly force is only authorized if the felony is a forcible and atrocious one which threatens death or serious bodily harm, or if there are circumstances which reasonably create a fear of death or serious bodily harm to the officer or other persons. Id. at 333.

This line of cases indicates that the common-law rule allowing deadly force to apprehend a person for any felony is no longer applicable in California. The felony must be atrocious or pose a threat of serious bodily injury.

In 1985, the United States Supreme Court decided the case of Tennessee v. Garner 471 U.S. 1. A Tennessee statute provided that if, after a police officer has given notice of an intent to arrest a criminal suspect, the suspect flees or forcibly resists, "the officer may use all the necessary means to effect the arrest." Acting under authority of the statute, a Memphis police officer shot and killed Garner's 15-year-old son as, after being told to halt, the son fled at night in the backyard of a house he had been burglarizing.

The officer used deadly force despite the fact that he saw no weapon (he could see only one of Garner's hands) and was "reasonably sure" the suspect was unarmed. The officer testified that, because of the circumstances of the encounter, he knew he would not be able to catch Garner, and Garner would have gotten away.

After a review by the Memphis Police Firearms Review Board, the case was presented to a grand jury. Neither took action. In a civil action in Federal District Court seeking damages under 42 U.S.C. section 1983, Garner's father asserted violations of his son's Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendment constitutional rights. The District Court held the officer's action constitutional and the Court of Appeal reversed. The case went before the U.S. Supreme Court in 1985.

Justice White, writing for the United States Supreme Court, narrowly defined the issue in Garner to be,

The constitutionality of the use of deadly force to prevent escape of an apparently unarmed suspected felon. We conclude that such force may not be used unless it is necessary to prevent the escape and the officer has probable cause to believe that the suspect poses a significant threat of death or serious physical injury to the officer or others. (Emphasis added.)

The court, in so ruling, endorsed the position of the Court of Appeal that "the killing of a fleeing suspect is a 'seizure' under the Fourth Amendment and is, therefore, constitutional only if 'reasonable.'" After discussing its opinion in light of the balancing process applied in Fourth Amendment cases in general, the Supreme Court restated its rule somewhat less precisely:

Where the officer has probable cause to believe that the suspect poses a threat of serious physical harm, either to the officer or to others, it is not constitutionally unreasonable to prevent escape by using deadly force. Thus, if the suspect threatens the officer with a weapon or there is probable cause to believe that he has committed a crime involving the infliction or threatened infliction of serious physical harm, deadly force may be used if necessary to prevent escape, and if, where feasible, some warning has been given.

It should be noted that in its decision, the United States Supreme Court identified California as a jurisdiction that had "significantly limited" its statute incorporating the common-law through case law, citing Kortum v. Alkire and Long Beach Police Officers Association v. Long Beach 61 Cal.App.3d 364. The court also pointed out that most police department policies regarding use of deadly force are more restrictive still.

Only two California cases have been decided since Garner became law. People v. Martin (1985) 168 Cal.App.3d 1111, and People v. Gilmore (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 612. In Martin, the defendant, an off-duty police officer, shot and killed a fleeing, apparently unarmed, participant in the nighttime burglary of his son's temporarily unoccupied residence. The defendant saw two youths as they were leaving the residence. He ordered them to halt. One felon stopped but the other kept running. As the second youth was about to get away over a fence, Martin shot him.

The court held that the defendant,

Necessarily committed the homicide in attempting by lawful ways and means to apprehend the victim while fleeing from the scene of his nighttime residential burglary. We specifically limit our holding to felons fleeing after commission of a crime which was a felony at common-law.

Id. at 1125.

The facts in Martin are very similar to those of Garner. However, in Martin, deadly force was determined to be justified and in Garner, it was not.

The Martin court stated that the law regarding the use of deadly force has changed with the Garner decision. Martin did not apply Garner because the shooting of the suspect occurred prior to that decision and the court refused to apply Garner retroactively.

Admittedly, the significant changes . . . in Tennessee v. Garner . . . have undermined the justification for homicide which section 197(4) facially provides . . .

Further, our interpretation of section 197(4), is applicable only to offenses alleged to have occurred prior to the decision in Tennessee v. Garner.

CALJIC 5.26 also indicates that Garner will be applied to cases prosecuted under section 197(4) and similar statutes, but states that its application has not yet been interpreted in California. "That rule in Tennessee v. Garner, supra, which pertained to a warrantless arrest, may also apply to a 'person charged with a felony.' However, there is no law in California on the issue."

There has been no post-Garner case in California concerning the killing by a police officer of an unarmed fleeing person suspected of committing a common-law felony. Thus, it is impossible to predict exactly how the appellate courts will apply Garner to such a case.

ANALYSIS

On its face, Garner v. Tennessee appears to stand for the proposition that the power of a police officer to arrest a criminal suspect does not include the use of deadly force to prevent his escape.

The rule, however, contains many exceptions. The most significant of these is that deadly force can be used:

- (1) When necessary to prevent escape, and

- (2) When the officer had probable cause to believe the suspect poses a significant threat of death or serious physical injury to the officer or others.

Whether this threat exists, however, is not necessarily determined by the facts of the crime, but the nature of the suspected crime. The common-law felonies are: residential nighttime burglary, arson, robbery, rape and certain sex crimes. Almost every reported case dealing with the use of deadly force against the fleeing felon turns upon whether the suspected felony was one of these "forcible and atrocious" crimes. The result of this line of cases is that not all burglaries are still included in that classification because burglary is a "property crime." However, no one has suggested that robbery is not one of the forcible and atrocious crimes.

It appears from each of these rulings that, when an officer has probable cause to believe that a suspect has committed a robbery, particularly an armed robbery or one in which someone has been physically injured, the officer may shoot the suspect if it is necessary to prevent him from getting away, or there is some significant threat of death or serious harm to the officer or others.

CONCLUSION

From the dispatch and what she could observe, Deputy Hagemann reasonably, but erroneously, believed that an armed robbery had taken place and further, that someone had been injured in that robbery.

She reasonably concluded, through observation and the process of elimination, that the person most likely to be armed was Moreno. Believing he was about to escape and that he presented a danger to those in the area, she raised her shotgun and prepared to shoot, if necessary. At this point, she saw what she believed to be Moreno starting to turn toward her and she shot.

From all of the facts available, it appears that the action of Deputy Hagemann in raising and racking the shotgun, thus "using" deadly force, was reasonable and justifiable from what she knew. Therefore, the actual shooting, whether in response to Moreno's movement or as an unintentional reflex action, was not a criminal act.

PRESS RELEASE

An internal investigation into the shooting of Daniel Moreno by Senior Deputy Linda Hagemann was initiated on February 14, 1990 (the date of the incident) and was completed with a review of the findings by Sheriff's Administration on Monday, 14 May 90. During the course of the investigation, fifty-five interviews were conducted; physical evidence was collected and analyzed; and re-enactment walk-throughs were conducted.

This investigation has shown that, based on the information given to Senior Deputy Hagemann by radio and information she received at the scene, there is no doubt that she feared for her safety; believed someone was being severely beaten or killed; believed there had been a robbery with weapons involved; and believed that she was faced with an immediate confrontation with multiple armed suspects who were running towards the exit of the Kinney Shoe Store where she stood in full uniform and with absolutely no cover. Facts later did not support what she believed to be true. She was not fortunate enough to have had the benefit of that knowledge at the time of the shooting. Based upon what knowledge she had, and based upon Department written policy on the use of deadly force, this shooting is within the Department's written guidelines. The District Attorney has also determined, in a separate investigation, that the shooting was lawful. There is evidence from witnesses, suspects and victims which supports Senior Deputy Hagemann's concern for her safety and the safety of others.

- An employee of Kinney's feared that the suspect "was going to pull something out."
- An employee tells one of the suspects that he "just wants out of here" and is told "don't say nothing to nobody."
- An employee, after exiting the store and seeing Senior Deputy Hagemann, urgently requested her to help his employee inside the store who was being severely beaten and possibly killed.
- One suspect told investigators that he felt trouble was going to take place when they got to Kinney shoes.

Press Release
May 15, 1990
Page Two

- Store employees were concerned for their safety when the suspects first entered store and spread out. Later these fears proved to be true when there were two separate attacks on store employees.
- Senior Deputy Hagemann was unable to see the suspect's hands and believed he was starting to turn towards her, even though she had shouted for the suspects to "freeze!"

As a result of this incident, some preliminary legal actions have been initiated against the County of Ventura and the Ventura County Sheriff's Department. The actions have been filed with the court and request that the Sheriff's Department preserve certain documents and tape recordings. These actions are obviously in preparation for filing a claim and lawsuit against the County and the Sheriff's Department.

We have been urgently advised by legal counsel not to further discuss anything concerning this incident. We are following that admonishment. Unfortunately, that means that no additional information can be released beyond that which has already been discussed in this press release.

 CASE DISPO: ARRESTED & PROSECUTED

I AM WRITING THIS REPORT AS THE RESULT OF A DIRECT ORDER FROM LT. GILES, AND LT. HARWELL. I AM NOT SUBMITTING THIS VOLUNTARILY; AND I UNDERSTAND THAT MY FAILURE TO DO SO MAY RESULT IN DISCIPLINARY ACTION.

I RECEIVED A CALL OF AN ARMED ROBBERY IN PROGRESS AT KINNEY SHOES, 706 ARNEILL RD CAMARILLO. AS SOON AS DISPATCH TRANSMITTED THE CALL, I WAS N/B ON ARNEILL JUST NORTH OF PONDEROSA DRIVE. WHEN THE DISPATCHER STOPPED TRANSMITTING I TOLD HER THAT I, (8B31), WAS '10-97' (ARRIVED ON SCENE). THE DISPATCHER CONTINUED WITH CALL INFORMATION TELLING ME THAT THERE WERE NUMEROUS SUSPECTS AND THERE WERE WEAPONS INVOLVED.

I STOPPED MY MARKED UNIT BRIEFLY IN THE SOUTH DRIVEWAY OF THE PARKING LOT IN FRONT OF KINNEY SHOES. I TRIED TO SEE INSIDE OF THE STORE TO VERIFY THE PRESENCE OF THE SUSPECTS, BUT WAS UNABLE TO SEE TO THE REAR OF THE STORE WHERE THE CASH REGISTER IS LOCATED. I PULLED MY UNIT FORWARD, BETWEEN THE KINNEY/FOOTLOCKER BUILDING AND THE UNION 76 STATION, IN ORDER TO KEEP MY PRESENCE CONCEALED TO THE SUSPECTS.

I TOOK THE SHOTGUN OUT OF THE RACK IN THE UNIT AND STOOD ON THE SOUTH SIDE OF THE LARGE HEDGE THAT IS ON THE SOUTH SIDE OF THE KINNEY/FOOTLOCKER BUILDING. THE AREA OFFERED NO NATURAL 'COVER', SO I TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THE CONCEALMENT AVAILABLE.

I TRIED TO CALL DISPATCH AND ASK FOR A PHONE CALL TO THE STORE TO ESTABLISH IF IN FACT THE CRIME WAS STILL IN PROGRESS. I WAS UNABLE TO BE HEARD BY DISPATCH DUE TO THE OTHER UNITS TALKING. WHILE I WAS TRYING TO GET AHOLD OF DISPATCH, I SAW A WM 40 YRS, WEARING GLASSES, AND DRESSED IN A BUSINESS SUIT WALK OUT OF THE FRONT DOORS OF KINNEY SHOES AND CALMLY WALK TOWARD ME AS I WAS STANDING NEXT TO THE HEDGE. I THOUGHT THAT HE WAS PROBABLY THE MANAGER OF THE STORE COMING OUT TO TELL ME THAT THE SUSPECTS HAD LEFT. INSTEAD HE TOLD ME THAT THE SUSPECTS WERE STILL THERE AND THEY WERE BEATING UP THE CLERK INSIDE, AND TO HURRY UP AND DO SOMETHING.

I WANTED TO SEE INSIDE THE STORE TO CONFIRM THE INFORMATION THE MANAGER HAD JUST GIVEN ME, SO I WALKED DOWN THE SIDEWALK AND STARTED HEADING TOWARD THE COMMON WALL THAT SEPARATES THE TWO STORES. BEFORE I COULD REACH THE WALL, I SAW THE FOUR (4) SUSPECTS RUNNING TOWARD THE FRONT DOOR OF THE STORE. THEY WERE ABOUT FIVE FEET INSIDE THE FRONT DOOR, RUNNING IN A GROUP. I HEARD ONE OF THE SUSPECTS YELL, " COME ON, LET'S GET OUT OF HERE." AS THEY GOT CLOSER TO THE FRONT DOOR, I ALSO SAW A WM BR HAIR, APPROX 17-18 YRS CHASING AFTER THE GROUP. I COULD HEAR THE 'ZAPPING' OF A STUN GUN, BUT COULD NOT SEE ONE.

I WAS LOOKING AT THE HANDS OF ALL OF THE SUSPECTS IN ORDER TO ESTABLISH THE PRESENCE OF WEAPONS. I COULD SEE AT LEAST ONE HAND OF THREE OF THE SUSPECTS, BUT WAS UNABLE TO SEE THE HANDS OF THE LARGER SUSPECT, BECAUSE HE APPEARED TO BE SHOVING SOMETHING INTO HIS JACKET POCKETS.

THE GROUP RAN OUT OF THE STORE, I YELLED "FREEZE, POLICE", AND IMMEDIATELY THEREAFTER RACKED A ROUND INTO THE SHOTGUN. THE SUSPECTS IGNORED MY COMMAND TO FREEZE AND CONTINUED TO RUN NORTH DOWN THE SIDEWALK. AS THE SUSPECTS WERE RUNNING I LOOKED AT THEIR HANDS FOR THE PRESENCE OF WEAPONS. I SAW NONE IN THE HANDS OF THE SMALLER SUSPECTS.

I COULD NOT SEE THE HANDS OF THE LARGER SUSPECT, AND QUICKLY FOCUSED ON HIM. HIS LEFT HAND WAS INSIDE THE LEFT COAT POCKET, AND HIS RIGHT HAND WAS CONCEALED FROM MY VIEW.

AS THE SUSPECTS RAN NORTH, THE LARGER SUSPECT SLOWED SLIGHTLY, AND BEGAN TURNING TO HIS LEFT, TOWARD ME, IN A MANNER INCONSISTENT WITH MY COMMAND TO FREEZE.

HAVING BEEN ADVISED THAT THIS SUSPECT WAS ARMED AND DANGEROUS, HAVING OBSERVED THAT THE SUSPECT WAS NOT ATTEMPTING TO STOP, AND SEEING HIM TURNING TOWARD ME AT A TIME WHEN I WAS STILL UNABLE TO SEE HIS HANDS, I WAS IN FEAR FOR MY SAFETY, AND THE SAFETY OF OTHERS IN THE IMMEDIATE AREA. I FIRED ONE (1) ROUND FROM MY SHOTGUN, STRIKING THE SUSPECT.

HE WENT DOWN IN THE AREA OF THE NW CORNER OF THE BUILDING.

I CONTINUED WALKING NORTH IN ORDER TO SEE WHERE THE OTHER SUSPECTS HAD RUN. I SAW ONE OF THE SUSPECTS HIDING BEHIND ONE OF THE PARKED CARS ON THE NORTH SIDE OF THE BUILDING. I COULD SEE THAT HE HAD NO WEAPONS IN HIS HANDS, AND THEN ORDERED HIM BACK TO THE AREA DIRECTLY IN FRONT OF ME, AND TO LAY DOWN ON HIS STOMACH. HAVING CONTAINED BOTH OF THE SUSPECTS, I WAITED FOR BACK-UP OFFICERS TO ARRIVE.

DEPUTY B. HANDY WAS THE FIRST TO ARRIVE, AND HE CHECKED ON THE LARGER SUSPECT, ASKED ME THE DIRECTION OF TRAVEL OF THE OTHER SUSPECTS. I TOLD HIM, AND HE STARTED IN THAT DIRECTION, W/B ON FOOT. I CALLED HIM BACK, TELLING HIM TO ASSIST WITH SECURING WITH THE SUSPECTS THAT I HAD AT GUNPOINT. HE DID, AND ANOTHER DEPUTY CAME UP BEHIND ME AND TOLD ME THAT HE WOULD HANDLE THE OTHER SUSPECT.

DEPUTY HANDY CALLED FOR FIRE AND AMBULANCE, AND I CALLED FOR A SUPERVISOR. I SECURED THE SHOTGUN BACK IN THE UNIT, AND AWAITED ARRIVAL OF THE SUPERVISOR.

BACKGROUND OF CALL

I WAS DISPATCHED TO THE ABOVE LOCATION ON A POSSIBLE 211 IN PROGRESS. WHILE I WAS RUNNING OUT TO MY BLACK AND WHITE POLICE VEHICLE, I HEARD DISPATCH ADVISE THAT THERE WERE WEAPONS INVOLVED. I THEN HEARD 8B31 (SR. DEP HAGEMANN) SAY THAT SHE HAD ARRIVED AT THE SCENE. I THEN HEARD DISPATCH SAY THAT THERE WAS A FIGHT INSIDE THE STORE. I THEN HEARD DEP HAGEMANN YELL OVER THE RADIO, BUT WAS UNABLE TO UNDERSTAND WHAT WAS SAID. I THEN ARRIVED AT THE SCENE, AND SAW SR. DEP HAGEMANN HOLDING A SHOTGUN ON TWO SUBJECTS LYING ON THE GROUND. SR. DEP HAGEMANN SAID THAT TWO SUSPECTS RAN TOWARDS HAPPY STEAK. I THEN NOTICED THAT ONE OF THE SUBJECTS THAT SHE WAS HOLDING AT GUNPOINT WAS INJURED AND BLEEDING FROM THE HEAD (S-1 DANIEL MARENO). I THEN TOLD THE OTHER SUBJECT (S-2 [REDACTED]) TO STAY WHERE HE WAS. I THEN HEARD DEP WAITE ARRIVE AND HAD HIM TEND TO S-1 DANIEL MARENO.

I WAS THEN CONTACTED BY A PASSER BY WHO TOLD ME THAT ONE OF THE SUSPECTS WHO HAD RUN FROM KENNEY SHOES WAS OVER IN FRONT OF TH BANK OF AMERICA. ## BACKGROUND

I WAS TOLD BY SGT. BROWN THAT A WITNESS NAMED [REDACTED] WAS AT THE BANK OF A LEVY BRANCH WHO SAW SOME SUBJECTS RUNNING AWAY FROM KENNYS SHOES. I THEN WENT OVER TO THE BANK OF A LEVY BRANCH AND CONTACTED W-3 [REDACTED].

W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED]'S STATEMENT

W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] STATED, IN SUBSTANCE, THAT SHE WAS WORKING AT THE DRIVE-UP WINDOW AT THE BANK OF A LEVY WHEN SHE HEARD A LOUD NOISE. (LIKE SOMETHING FALLING OFF THE ROOF BECAUSE SHE SAW SOME DEBRIS FALL WHEN SHE HEARD THE NOISE) W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] LOOKED OVER TOWARDS KENNYS SHOES AND SAW TWO SUBJECTS RUNNING AWAY. (TOWARDS HAPPY STEAK) W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] SAID ONE OF THE SUBJECTS LOOKED BACK (TOWARDS KENNEY SHOES) AND SHE SAID THAT SHE GOT A PRETTY GOOD LOOK AT HIM. W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] DESCRIBED HIM AS A MEXICAN MALE, AVERAGE HEIGHT, DARK HAIR, IN HIS 20'S WEARING A RED AND BLUE WINDBREAKER CARRYING A PLAIN WHITE BOX IN HIS HANDS. W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] SAID THAT THIS SUSPECT HAD THICK HAIR DOWN TO HIS COLLAR AREA. W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] DESCRIBED THE OTHER SUSPECT AS A MEXICAN MALE WEARING A BLACK BASEBALL CAP, DARK CLOTHING, ABOUT AVERAGE HEIGHT THIN BUILD IN HIS 20'S. W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] SAID THAT THIS SUSPECT HAD SHORT HAIR AND WAS WEARING A DARK COLORED BASEBALL CAP.

W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] ALSO TOLD ME THAT THE REASON THAT SHE CALLED THE POLICE WAS BECAUSE SHE NOTICED THE DAMAGE TO THE WINDOW AND THOUGHT THAT IT MIGHT BE RELATED TO THE INCIDENT AT KENNEY SHOES.

AFTER TALKING TO W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] I TOOK HER OVER TO WHERE S-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] AND S-4 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] WERE STANDING. W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] SAID THAT S-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] LOOKED LIKE THE ONE SHE SAW HOLDING THE WHITE BOX, BUT S-4 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] WAS TOO SHORT.

W-3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] THEN WENT BACK TO THE BANK.

I THEN HAD A CADET STAND BY UNTIL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION COULD ARRIVE AND PROCESS THE SCENE.

ON FEB. 20, 1990 AT APPROXIMATELY 1650 HRS. I WAS CONTACTED BY SGT. BARNES AND ASK TO DRAW A DIAGRAM OF THE PLACEMENT OF SR. DEP HAGEMANN WHEN I ARRIVED AT KINNEY SHOE STORE. I WAS ALSO ASK TO SHOW ABOUT WHERE THE TWO SUBJECTS WERE LYING ON THE GROUND AND WHERE I PARKED MY POLICE UNIT UPON ARRIVAL. SGT. BARNES ALSO ASK ME TO GO INTO A LITTLE MORE DETAIL ABOUT THE SHOOTING. HE ASKED FOR ME TO GO INTO MORE DETAIL AS TO WHERE I CAME FROM AND ANYTHING ELSE THAT I COULD REMEMBER UP TO THE POINT THAT THE VENTURA COUNTY FIRE DEPARTMENT AND PRUNER AMBULANCE ARRIVED ON SCENE. I TALKED TO SGT. BARNES LATER IN THE EVENING AND HE SAID TO WRITE THE FACTS FROM MEMORY AND NOT TO LISTEN TO THE TAPES FROM DISPATCH. SGT. BARNES SAID THAT THIS WAS ON THE REQUEST OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY CAROL NELSON.

LEGEND OF KINNEY SHOE STORE DIAGRAM

- #1 S-1 DANIEL MORENO, HE WAS LYING ON HIS RIGHT SIDE FACING N/B WITH HIS ARMS LYING IN FRONT OF HIM, HIS LEGS PARTIALLY CURLED UP WITH BLOOD COMING OUT OF HIS NOSE AND MOUTH
- #2 S-2 [REDACTED] LYING FACE DOWN FACING W/B WITH HIS LEGS PARTIALLY INTO THE PARKING LOT EAST OF THE ISLAND
- #3 A SILVER VEHICLE PARKED IN THE FIRST STALL BEHIND S-2
- #4 SR. DEP HAGEMANN WAS STANDING IN THE PARKING LOT AREA ABOUT 10 TO 12 FEET WEST OF S-1 DANIEL MORENO AND S-2 [REDACTED] POINTING HER SHOTGUN AT THEM
- #5 MY PATROL UNIT WAS PARKED IN THE PARKING LOT IN FRONT OF KINNEY SHOE STORE ABOUT 30 TO 45 FEET SOUTH OF WHERE SR. DEP HAGEMANN WAS STANDING.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

I ENTERED THE PARKING LOT AREA FROM N/B ARNEILL RD. THROUGH THE ENTRANCE BETWEEN THE FOOTLOCKER SHOE STORE AND THE 76 STATION.

I WAS AT CAMARILLO P.D. WRITING A REPORT AT THE FRONT DESK AREA (NEXT TO THE COMPUTERS AND WITHIN HEARING RANGE OF THE STATION RADIO), WHEN I HEARD DISPATCH ADVISE OF A POSSIBLE 211 IN PROGRESS AT KINNEY SHOE STORE. I RAN TO THE PARKING LOT AND TO MY PATROL UNIT. I THEN DROVE OUT ONTO PALM DR. AND WAS DRIVING TOWARDS VENTURA BL. WHEN DISPATCH ADVISED THAT THERE WERE POSSIBLE WEAPONS INVOLVED IN THE 211 AT KINNEY SHOE STORE. I THEN HEARD SR. DEP HAGEMANN TELL DISPATCH THAT SHE HAD ARRIVED AT THE SCENE. I THEN HEARD DISPATCH ADVISE THAT THE SUBJECTS WERE FIGHTING INSIDE THE STORE. I THEN HEARD SR. DEP HAGEMANN YELL SOMETHING OVER THE RADIO, BUT WAS UNABLE TO UNDERSTAND WHAT SHE SAID. I THEN ARRIVED AT THE SCENE AND SAW SR. DEP HAGEMANN STANDING IN THE PARKING LOT FACING THE TWO SUBJECTS LYING ON THE GROUND HOLDING THEM AT GUNPOINT. I THEN PARKED MY CAR AND RAN OVER TO WHERE SR. DEP HAGEMANN WAS HOLDING S-1 DANIEL MORENO AND S-2 [REDACTED] AT GUNPOINT. SR. DEP HAGEMANN THEN TOLD ME THAT THE SUSPECTS RAN THAT WAY. (INDICATING TOWARDS HAPPY STEAK) AS I RAN PAST S-1 DANIEL MORENO, I NOTICED THAT HE WAS BLEEDING FROM THE MOUTH AND NOSE AREA. I THEN PULLED OUT MY HANDGUN AND STARTED RUNNING IN THE DIRECTION THAT SR. DEP HAGEMANN INDICATED THE SUSPECTS HAD RUN. SR. DEP HAGEMANN THEN CALLED ME BACK TO WHERE SHE WAS. I REHOLSTERED MY GUN AND RETURNED TO WHERE SR. DEP HAGEMANN WAS STANDING. I BELIEVE, AT THIS POINT, I BROADCAST THAT THE SUSPECTS WERE LAST SEEN RUNNING TOWARDS HAPPY STEAK. I THEN WENT OVER TO S-2 [REDACTED] AND TOLD HIM NOT TO MOVE. I THEN REQUESTED FIRE AND AMBULANCE FOR S-1 DANIEL MORENO WHO I KNEW WAS INJURED, AND I THOUGHT HIS INJURIES WERE SUSTAINED IN THE FIGHT. I THEN SAW DEP WAITE RUNNING TOWARDS ME AND I TOLD HIM TO GET THE FIRST AID KIT OUT OF MY CAR AND TAKE CARE OF S-1 DANIEL MORENO'S INJURIES. I THEN SAW SR. DEP HAGEMANN WALKING BACK TOWARDS THE FRONT OF KINNEY SHOE STORE AND HEARD HER REQUESTING 8S CODE THREE. I THEN SAW SGT. BROWN ARRIVE AND TALK TO SR. DEP HAGEMANN IN THE PARKING LOT IN FRONT OF THE KINNEY SHOE STORE. SGT BROWN THEN CAME OVER TO WHERE I WAS AND TOLD ME TO PLACE S-2 [REDACTED] UNDER ARREST. I THEN PLACED S-2 [REDACTED] UNDER ARREST AND PLACED HIM IN MY PATROL UNIT. I THEN PULLED MY PATROL UNIT UP BY WHERE S-1 DANIEL MORENO WAS LYING AND LEFT S-2 [REDACTED] IN THE BACK SEAT. I THEN STARTED SECURING THE CRIME SCENE.

WHILE I WAS SECURING THE CRIME SCENE, A PASSER BY CAME BY AND TOLD ME THAT ONE OF THE SUSPECTS THAT RAN FROM THE KINNEY SHOE STORE WAS IN THE PARKING LOT OF THE BANK OF AMERICA. THE PASSER BY SAID THAT THE SUSPECT WAS WEARING A BLACK SHIRT, AND A BASEBALL HAT ON BACKWARDS. I THEN BROADCAST THIS INFORMATION AND SR. DEP LOREZEN ALONG WITH DEP RIVAS AND DEP COX, FOUND A SUSPECT WEARING A BLACK SHIRT WITH A BASEBALL HAT ON BACKWARDS, ALONG WITH THE ANOTHER SUSPECT, WALKING ACROSS THE STREET BY THE BANK OF THE [REDACTED] BANK AT PICKWICK AND ARNEILL. THEY PLACED THEM UNDER ARREST AND TRANSPORTED THEM BACK TO THE SCENE.

AFTER I PUT OUT THE BROADCAST, SR. DEP BUTTELL DROVE UP AND I HAD HIM BLOCK THE ENTRANCE TO KINNEY SHOE STORE WITH HIS VAN FOR A FEW MINUTES UNTIL HE TOLD ME THAT HE HAD TO LEAVE. I THEN BLOCKED OFF THE ENTRANCE WITH SOME CRIME SCENE TAPE. I THEN NOTICED THAT THE FIRE DEPARTMENT AND AMBULANCE HAD NOT ARRIVED YET AND I ASK FOR THEM TO BE DISPATCHED AGAIN.

DURING THE TIME WE WERE WAITING FOR MEDICAL ASSISTANCE, DEP WAITE AND DEP DICKMAN CONTINUED TO RENDER FIRST AID TO S-1 DANIEL MORENO AND

WHILE WORKING A PLAIN CLOTHES DETAIL (8X), DEP COX AND I WERE DRIVING S/B VALLEY VISTA PASSING MARINE VIEW DR, ([REDACTED]) WHEN STATION 1 (EOC DISPATCH) DISPATCHED 8B31 (HAGEMANN) AND 8C31 (WAITE) TO AN ALARM CALL IN THE CITY OF CAMARILLO. JUST SECONDS LATER, DISPATCH STATED "8BOY, 8CHARLES 10-22" I REMEMBERED A SLIGHT PAUSE, THEN DISPATCH CONTINUED "211 IN PROGRESS AT KINNEYS SHOE STORE, 706 ARNIELL RD!" BOTH UNITS THEN ACKNOWLEDGED.

MOMENTS AFTER THE RADIO TRANSMISSION, DISPATCH RE-ADVISED "CAMARILLO UNITS, 10-33 IN EFFECT, SUBJECTS JUST PULLED OUT A "GUN OR WEAPON" I DONT REMEMBER WHICH TERM WAS USED. 8B31 (HAGEMANN) IMMEDIATLEY WENT 10-97. SECONDS LATER, DEP COX AND I HEARD HAGEMANN BEGIN TO ASK FOR BACK-UP, ADVISING OF A FIGHT INSIDE THE STORE. TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE, I HEARD DEP HANDY (8A31) ASKING STA-1 FOR A CODE 3 RESPONSE WHILE. DEP. HANDY'S TRANSMISSIONS BEGAN TO OVER RIDE 8B31'S RADIO TRAFFIC. DEP. HANDY STATED SOMETHING TO THE EFFECT OF "LINDA, DO YOU WANT ME TO RESPONSE CODE-3 ?". A CONVERSATION BETWEEN 8A31 (HANDY) AND 8R31 (LORENZEN) TOOK PLACE ON STA-1.

8B31 (HAGEMANN) THEN ADVISED STATION-1 TO HAVE FIRE, AMBULANCE AND 8S1 SGT. BROWN RESPOND CODE THREE FOR AN OFFICER INVOLVED SHOOTING. DEP. HANDY ARRIVED AND HE PUT OUT A SUSPECT DESCRIPTION. DEP. HANDY ALSO SAID THAT THE SUSPECT WAS LAST SEEN RUNNING IN THE AREA OF BANK OF AMERICA.

WE ARRIVED ON SCENE ALONG WITH 8R31, AND WE DROVE ON PICKWICK DR IN FRONT OF THE BANK OF THE [REDACTED]. B. THE WALLET CONTAINED A CALIF DRIVERS LICENSE BELONGING TO A DANIEL CESAR MORENO [REDACTED]. SGT BROWN WAS NOTIFIED OF THE WALLET'S CONTENTS AND HE ASSIGNED ME TO ACCOMPANY THE WOUNDED SUSPECT TO PLEASANT VALLEY HOSPITAL. WHILE BOARDING THE AMBULANCE, THE SUSPECT WAS LYING ON A GUERNY AND HAD A SET OF CAR KEYS TUCKED BETWEEN HIS LEGS (CROTCH). I REMOVED THE KEYS AND SAW THAT THEY WERE GENERAL MOTORS KEYS, ALONG WITH ONE HOUSE STYLE KEY. SGT BROWN WAS IMMEDIATELY NOTIFIED OF THIS FACT FOR HIS FIELD INVESTIGATION UPON REACHING PVER.

AFTER RECEIVING MEDICAL ATTENTION, MORENO WAS TRANSFERRED TO VENTURA CO. MEDICAL CENTER (ICU).

Q- CAN YOU FEEL YOUR LEFT SIDE? IF YOU CAN, RAISE ONE FINGER, IF YOU CAN'T FEEL IT, RAISE TWO FINGERS.

A- MORENO RAISED TWO FINGERS.

BEFORE TALKING TO MORENO, I WAS SPEAKING WITH DR. [REDACTED] THE NEUROLOGIST. I ASKED DR. [REDACTED] FOR MORENO'S PROGNOSIS, AND DR. [REDACTED] SAID THAT HIS HONEST OPINION WAS THAT MORENO HAD SUFFERED SEVERE BRAIN DAMAGE AND HE WOULD PROBABLY NEVER USE HIS LEFTSIDE AGAIN. I ASKED HIM IF HE THOUGHT HE'S GONNA DIE, AND DR. [REDACTED] SAID THAT IF INFECTION SETS IN THE BRAIN, HE WOULD PROBABLY DIE. DR. [REDACTED] THEN SAID "THERE'S NOTHING I CAN DO FOR HIM. "THIS CONVERSATION TOOK PLACE AT THE FOOT OF MORENO'S GUERNY AND I DIDN'T KNOW IF HE WAS CONSCIOUS OF THE CONVERSATION.

DEP COX AND I THEN WENT TO MORENO'S BEDSIDE AND I ASKED THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS, OUTSIDE OF MIRANDA. PRESENT WAS [REDACTED].

50 NARRATIVE: (Include Actions and Conversations by Suspects and Victims and Other Events Not Previously Covered)

On 2-14-90, I responded to an officer-involved shooting at 706 Arneill Road, Camarillo. I arrived at the scene at approximately 1730 hours observing the parking lot in front of the Kinney Shoe Store at that address to be cordoned off at the north side of the store with yellow-colored plastic crime scene tape.
I contacted Deputy Burt Handy who informed me that all suspects were in custody and that one had been transported to Pleasant Valley Hospital by ambulance as he had suffered a gun shot wound. I observed on the sidewalk at the northwest corner of the store, a pool of blood and a black baseball cap. I asked who was in charge of the scene and was directed to contact Sergeant Noel Brown who was inside the store

[REDACTED] STATES THAT DANIEL WAS LAYING ON THE GROUND BLEEDING FROM THE HEAD. THE DEPUTIES GAVE FIRST AID TO DANIEL UNTIL THE AMBULANCE ARRIVED APPROX. FIVE MINUTES LATER.

I ASKED [REDACTED] IF HE, OR ANY OF HIS FRIENDS, HAD A GUN OR ANY OTHER TYPE OF WEAPON WITH THEM TODAY. [REDACTED] SAID THAT HE DIDN'T SEE ANY WEAPONS AND DOESN'T THINK THAT ANY OF HIS FRIENDS HAD ANY WEAPONS ON THEM.

DANIEL STATES THAT HE NEVER SAW "THE LADY COP" UNTIL AFTER DANIEL WAS SHOT. HE DIDN'T HEAR "THE LADY COP" GIVE ANY WARNING PRIOR TO THE SHOT. ALL [REDACTED] COULD HEAR WAS THE "EMPLOYEE IN THE GREEN SHIRT" YELLING OBSCENITIES AT THEM. [REDACTED] CONCEDES THAT "THE LADY COP'S" WARNING MAY HAVE BEEN DROWNED OUT BY THE YELLING OF THE "EMPLOYEE IN THE GREEN SHIRT".

[REDACTED] STATES THAT HE HAS NEVER BEEN TO THAT STORE BEFORE AND DOESN'T KNOW ANY OF THE EMPLOYEES THERE, INCLUDING [REDACTED]. HE SAID THAT THEY WENT THERE BECAUSE DANNY SAID THAT HE WANTED TO GET SOME MONEY THAT [REDACTED] OWED HIM. [REDACTED] DENIES GOING THERE WITH THE INTENTION OF ROBBING THE STORE. AT 2330 HRS. DATE, I WENT TO VENTURA COUNTY MEDICAL CENTER TO CHECK ON THE CONDITION OF (S) DANIEL MORENO. PRESENT IN THE INTENSIVE CARE UNIT WERE DEPUTY BRETT COX, DEPUTY [REDACTED] RIVAS, AND AN ASSORTMENT OF EMERGENCY MEDICAL PERSONNEL.

DEPUTY RIVAS SAID THAT HE HAD OBSERVED DR. [REDACTED] (I.C.U.) COMMUNICATE WITH (S) MORENO BY HAVING HIM "ANSWER" SIMPLE YES OR NO QUESTIONS BY MOVING THE FINGERS ON HIS RIGHT HAND. MORENO WAS APPARENTLY PARALYZED ON HIS LEFT SIDE AND UNABLE TO TALK, DUE TO HIS INJURIES. I SPOKE TO DR. [REDACTED] AND HE CONFIRMED THAT MORENO DID APPEAR TO BE ABLE TO "ANSWER" SOME OF HIS MEDICAL QUESTIONS.

DEPUTY RIVAS TOLD ME THAT HE HAD INTERVIEWED MORENO, WITHOUT HAVING ADVISED HIM PER MIRANDA, CONCERNING THE INCIDENT AT THE KINNY SHOE STORE (REFER TO FOLLOW-UP REPORTS BY DEPUTIES RIVAS AND COX). RIVAS TOLD ME THAT MORENO SEEMED TO RESPOND TO HIS QUESTIONS. RIVAS ALSO TOLD ME THAT MORENO HAD "ADMITTED" TO HAVING A GUN WITH HIM AT THE SCENE. BASED ON THE OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS OF DEPUTY RIVAS AND DR. [REDACTED], I DECIDED TO TRY AND INTERVIEW MORENO. PRESENT DURING THE INTERVIEW WERE DR. [REDACTED] AND DEPUTY RIVAS. THE INTERVIEW WAS RECORDED AND RETAINED.

NOTE: MORENO'S LEFT SIDE WAS WITHOUT MOVEMENT DURING THE INTERVIEW. HIS LEFT HAND WOULD CLUTCH AND MOVE SPASMODICALLY THROUGHOUT THE ENTIRE INTERVIEW, HOWEVER, I BELIEVE THAT THE "YES / NO" FINGER MOVEMENTS THAT I OBSERVED WERE IN RESPONSE TO THE QUESTIONS I ASKED. DUE TO THE GRAVE NATURE OF MORENO'S WOUND, I HAVE NO WAY OF KNOWING IF HE WAS MEDICALLY CAPABLE OF UNDERSTANDING MY QUESTIONS AND GIVING INTELLIGENT RESPONSES.

I ASKED MORENO THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS (Q) AND OBSERVED THE INDICATED RESPONSES (R). RAISING TWO FINGERS INDICATED A "YES" RESPONSE, RAISING ONE FINGER INDICATED A "NO" RESPONSE:

Q: CAN YOU HEAR ME, DANIEL? WIGGLE TWO FINGERS IF YOU CAN HEAR ME DANIEL.

R: RAISED INDEX AND MIDDLE FINGER. (YES)

█████ LOOKED AT ALL THE PHOTOS AND SAID THAT THE SUBJECT HE
FIGHT WITH WASN'T AMONG THESE PHOTOS. HE SAID THAT THE ONE HE FOUGHT AND ULTIMATELY SHOCKED WITH A STUN GUN, WAS THE PERSON THAT THE POLICE WERE TRYING TO SHOOT.

█████ STATES THAT AFTER THE FOUR OR FIVE SUSPECTS CAME INTO THE STORE, HE COULD SENSE THAT THERE WAS GOING TO BE TROUBLE. HE ASKED THE STORE MANAGER IF HE COULD GO OUT TO HIS CAR TO GET HIS CIGARETTES, AS AN EXCUSE TO GET HIS STUN GUN. ██████ RETURNED TO THE STORE WITH THE
ENTERED THE STORE, HE COULD SEE THAT ██████ WAS ON THE FLOOR AT THE BACK OF THE STORE NEAR THE CASH REGISTER. IT APPEARED THAT A COUPLE OF GUYS WERE KICKING HIM. ██████ DECIDED TO INTERVENE. HIS ATTENTION WAS FOCUSED ON THE FIGHT AT THE BACK OF THE STORE. HE WAS APPROX. 5-10
FEET INSIDE THE FRONT OF THE STORE, WHEN HE WAS "BLIND SIDE" PUNCHED
ON THE LEFT CHEEK BONE AREA BY A MALE, MEXICAN SUBJECT. ██████ DIDN'T SEE
THIS SUBJECT WHEN HE FIRST ENTERED THE STORE AND WAS MOMENTARILY STUNNED AND KNOCKED OFF BALANCE BY THE BLOW. ██████ STUMBLED TO HIS RIGHT AND FELL AGAINST A SHOE DISPLAY. ██████ STATES THAT THE GUY WAS RIGHT ON HIM, HITTING HIM WITH BODY BLOWS. ██████ PULLED HIS STUN GUN
OUT OF HIS POCKET AND TRIED TO SHOCK HIS ATTACKER. APPARENTLY HE DIDN'T MAKE GOOD CONTACT, BECAUSE THE SUBJECT GAVE NO INDICATION OF HAVING BEEN SHOCKED. ██████ APPLIED THE STUN GUN AGAIN, HARDER, TO THE SUBJECT'S GROIN AREA AND THIS TIME IT PRODUCED THE DESIRED EFFECT. THE SUBJECT BROKE OFF HIS ATTACK AND JUST SHUDDERED. HE RECOVERED AND RAN

3. HE DID HEAR THE OTHERS URGING THE GUY THAT HE HAD SHOCKED
"WAKE UP, LET'S GO!"

DAKS STATES THAT THE SUBJECT THAT HE SHOCKED WAS THE LAST ONE
OUT THE DOOR. [REDACTED] FOLLOWED HIM OUT THE DOOR, STILL HOLDING THE STUN
STORE AND YELLED OBSCENITIES AT THE FLEEING SUSPECT. HE COULD ONLY SEE ONE SUBJECT AND SPECULATES THAT THE OTHERS HAD ALREADY TURNED THE CORNER. AT THIS POINT, HE NOTICED THE FEMALE DEPUTY IN THE PARKING
LOT, SLIGHTLY TO HIS REAR. SHE WAS POINTING A SHOTGUN AT THE FLEEING SUSPECT. SHE YELLED AT THE SUSPECT, "FREEZE! STOP!" AS HE WAS TURNING
THE CORNER SHE FIRED ONE SHOT. THE SUSPECT DIDN'T FALL RIGHT AWAY AND DAKS THOUGHT THAT SHE HAD JUST FIRED A WARNING SHOT. [REDACTED] GLANCED BRIEFLY AT THE DEPUTY AND WHEN HE LOOKED BACK, THE SUSPECT WAS ON THE GROUND. AT FIRST, THE DEPUTY JUST STOOD THERE, THEN SHE WENT OVER TO THE GUY ON THE GROUND AND WALKED AROUND HIM, "KEEPING HIM COVERED"
WITH THE SHOTGUN. ABOUT THIS TIME, OTHER POLICE CARS ARRIVED TO HELP.
[REDACTED] STATES THAT INCIDENT HAPPENED VERY FAST.

[REDACTED] STATES THAT THE SUBJECT THAT HE FOUGHT WITH, AND SHOCKED, IN THE STORE IS THE ONE THAT THE DEPUTY SHOT. [REDACTED] THINKS THAT HE MAY HAVE SEEN THIS SAME SUBJECT STANDING OUTSIDE THE STORE, JUST PRIOR TO HIS ([REDACTED]) RETURNING WITH THE STUN GUN. HE DESCRIBES HIS ASSAILANT AS A MALE, MEXICAN, TALLER AND OLDER THAN THE OTHERS, HEAVY BUILD, 24 YEARS. WEARING A DARK NYLON JACKET AND A BLACK "RAIDERS" BALL CAP.

DE HARWELL ARRIVED ON THE SCENE AND WE DISCUSSED THE CASE. WE ED THE SCENE WHERE THE ARRESTEE MORENO HAD FALLEN. IT WAS ON THE SWALK AT THE NORTHWEST CORNER OF THE KINNEY STORE. THERE WAS A LL POOL OF BLOOD, AND A BLACK "RAIDER'S" BASEBALL TYPE CAP ON THE DEWALK. WE ALSO FOLLOWED WHAT WE BELIEVED TO BE THE TRAJECTORY OF IE SHOT GUN PELLETS, AND FOUND THEY HAD STRUCK A WINDOW AND WALL AT HE "BANK OF A. LEVY", ACROSS THE PARKING LOT.

I ASKED SGT. BROWN WHERE DEP. HAGEMAN'S UNIT WAS PARKED, AND WHERE WAS HER SHOTGUN. BROWN DIRECTED ME TO UNIT #3185 AND DEP. HAGEMAN'S
SHOTGUN, WHICH WAS IN THE SHOTGUN HOLDER BUT NOT LOCKED. WE SECURED
THE SHOTGUN AND LOCKED THE UNIT DOORS. I RETURNED TO THE UNIT LATER, REMOVED THE SHOTGUN, AND GAVE IT TO B.I. OFCR HARWOOD.

WHILE AT THE SCENE I INTERVIEWED TWO WITNESSES, [REDACTED] GATELY AND [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. THEY ARE BOTH EMPLOYEES OF THE "FOOTLOCKER", WHICH IS DIRECTLY
NEXT DOOR TO "KINNEY'S", SOUTH OF AND IN THE SAME BUILDING. REFER TO SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT FOR THOSE INTERVIEWS.

I SECURED FROM THE SCENE AND DROVE DIRECTLY TO THE CAMARILLO POLICE
DEPT., ARRIVING AT APPROX. 1900 HOURS. AT THE POLICE DEPT. I MET AGAIN WITH LT. [REDACTED] HARWELL AND WE DISCUSSED THE PROGRESS OF THE INVESTIGATION. IT WAS OUR DECISION THAT I WOULD INTERVIEW
DEP. HAGEMAN, AND THAT THE INTERVIEW WOULD BE INSIDE MIRANDA.

HAGEMAN WAS ADVISED THAT I WOULD LIKE TO SPEAK WITH HER, AND THE INTERVIEW WAS CONDUCTED IN HER OFFICE AT THE CAMARILLO POLICE DEPARTMENT. PRESENT DURING THE INTERVIEW AT HAGEMAN'S REQUEST WAS MIKE LEWIS. THE INTERVIEW WAS RECORDED AND RETAINED. AT 1954 AS I READ DEP.HAGEMAN HER MIRANDA RIGHTS FROM MY DEPT. ISSUED CARD, SHE ELECTED TO NOT WAIVE WITH THE STATEMENT "NO".

LEFT THE POLICE DEPARTMENT AND STOPPED MOMENTARILY AT THE PLEASANT ALLEY HOSPITAL EMERGENCY ROOM. THEY WERE PREPARING THE ARRESTEE MORENO FOR TRANSFER TO THE VENTURA COUNTY MEDICAL CENTER. PRESENT AT THE HOSPITAL WERE DEPUTIES RIVAS AND LORENZEN. I WAS INFORMED BY A NURSE THAT SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES DIDN'T TAKE ALL OF MORENO'S CLOTHING. I REQUESTED THAT DEP.RIVAS SEIZE THE REMAINDER OF MORENO'S CLOTHING AND PROPERTY, AND BOOK IT INTO EVIDENCE. I FOUND LORENZEN INTERVIEWING THE VICTIM [REDACTED].

EARLIER IN THE EVENING, AT MY REQUEST, DETS.BOB YOUNG AND RAY BUSTILLOS RESPONDED TO SHERIFF'S DETECTIVES IN VENTURA TO INTERVIEW THE THREE SUSPECTS. AFTER LEAVING THE HOSPITAL I MET WITH YOUNG AND BUSTILLOS IN OUR OFFICE, WHERE WE DISCUSSED THE PROGRESS OF THE INVESTIGATION.

I LEFT MY OFFICE AND DROVE TO THE SHERIFF'S EAST VALLEY SUB-STATION IN THOUSAND [REDACTED], WHERE I INTERVIEWED SHERIFF'S SERVICE TECHNICIAN [REDACTED]. I HAD BEEN INFORMED EARLIER THAT [REDACTED] WAS A WITNESS TO THIS INVESTIGATION. REFER TO MY SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT FOR HIS STATEMENTS.
